WHAT IS THE CREATIVE HOUSE?

01. WHAT IS THE CREATIVE HOUSE?

The Creative House Spaces that spark creativity

The second life of a space that defined an era in the 1940s as a renowned pioneering bakery.

What was once a bustling hub of flour and dough has now become an epicentre of creativity and dialogue. The echoes of clattering baking trays being replaced by the buzz of brainstorming sessions.

Soft lighting bathes the space in a warm glow, casting playful shadows across it. It's the familiar scents that welcome you — home-cooked meals and freshly brewed coffee wafting from the kitchen, mingling with the subtle hint of paper and ink, greeting you like an old friend.

A collection of cherished details awaits as you step through the threshold.

Here, you feel free to be yourself, to unapologetically kick off your shoes and revel in the simple joy of being "barefoot".

And as you move through the space, a soothing rhythm of sounds fills the air—the comforting ticking of a clock, the laughter echoing through the rooms amidst the chatter of video calls.

For home is not merely a place, but a feeling—a refuge where you can find happiness in the familiarity of your surroundings without having to tiptoe. It's where the freedom to be yourself is celebrated.

The Creative House is a versatile canvas, blending spaces where countless stories can unfold. Here, we're rewriting the script, proving that creativity can emerge from the most unexpected yet remarkable of places.

In the heart of an old bakery in Valencia's neighbourhood of Russafa, something extraordinary takes shape.

Welcome Home!

01. WHAT IS THE CREATIVE HOUSE?

WHO IS BEHIND IT?

The Creative House is a 440m² space, bathed in natural light and soft textures that contrast with its industrial finishes. Spread over three floors and designed by Elena Francés and Juanjo Picó, it is located in the heart of Ruzafa, the trendy neighborhood of the city of Valencia.

The space housed the Escribá bakery until the end of the 20th century. Founded in the tumultuous 1940s by a unique woman of her time, with a brave, creative, and passionate spirit, Asunción kneaded the most sought-after breads and pastries in Valencia for more than half a century.

Both the space and the charisma and history of Asunción captivated the current owners. Sophie von Schönburg and Fátima Ateyeh, born in Spain but of German and Palestinian origin respectively, have been running the communication and events agency 'Signne' for more than 15 years.

"We were looking for a space that reflected calmness but was located in a vibrant area of the city; the perfect balance between the hustle and bustle of a trendy area and the tranquillity of arriving home".

- Sophie Von Schönburg
